With reference to the above, has the honor to state that the application in question which is for 10 guntas out of the free grazing, on full assessment (to be fixed by the Revenue Survey Department) does not come under the scope of the Shraya Rules and Government Proceedings No 4058-65 (83) dated 29th July 1890 cir. 78 referred to therein, but appertains to Section 39 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

Memo.

In the year 1884, Bhadraya Khalēdar of the Hasanad village in the Nagar Taluk converted into a garden 10 guntas of land out of Survey No. 259 (Free gomal land) without permission. The Smale bit adjoins his kittal and garden.

2. He continued the unauthorized cultivation for two years prior to 1886, when the fact was brought to the notice of the Jamabandy Officer on the Takrar Takhta, who (Mr. V. P. Madhava Rao B. A. Deputy Commissioner) passed an order that the party should pay a fine of Rs 10/- for cultivating the land for the previous two years without permission, and directed him to discontinue the cultivation and that if he intended to have the land for himself he might apply for the same according to the Rules.

3. Rudraya bin Bhadraya accordingly put in an application for the land. These facts were omitted to be mentioned in the statement already submitted and the Head Accountant and Revenue Sheristadar have been reprimanded for the omission.

4 After this length of time it does not appear advisable to decline to grant the application and deprive the applicant of the land he brought under garden cultivation several years ago, though his conduct was very reprehensible in cultivating the land without authority

5. As a warning against any attempt at unauthorized cultivation of the kind full assessment may be levied from the applicant from the year of the cultivation irrespective of the fine he has already paid under the orders referred to above.
